What best describes the opponent you just played?
Select one of the following that best describes him/her

- ☐ This person knew the rules well, happily worked through any questions or problems, and made the game one of the most fun I've ever played (6 points)
- ☐ A fair person to play against, we worked out most questions amicably and the game was enjoyable (4 points)
- ☐ An okay person to play against, but we struggled working out rules questions or otherwise coming to a suitable compromise during the game. Definitely could have been a better game. (2 points)
- ☐ This person was a serious problem throughout the whole game I need to talk to staff. (0 points)

- A win is worth 15 points
- A tie is worth 9 points
- A loss is worth 5 points

Plus, any scenario point modifiers

If the scenario uses Victory Points, the game is a tie if the Victory Point difference is less than or equal to 200 Victory Points.

Select one of the following that best describes your opponents army:

- ☐ This was a fine example of what this army should look like. Everything from color scheme, unit markings, to appropriate unit selections for the chosen army. (2 points)
- ☐ This army was not exceptional but I do not believe it was looking for loopholes in the army list to give them an unfair advantage in the game. (1 point)
- ☐ This army does not fit the background and flavor of the Codex or army book for this army in any way shape or form. An infiltrating, scouting army with three Wraithlords?!? Why does that fast cavalry army have two cannons and a Steamtank? (0 points)
